

Dear Attendee,

I hope you enjoyed the ACAT Conference. I found the day to be insightful and filled with fantastic conversations exploring challenges and opportunities. Here is a selection of resources that you may find useful:

Charity banking

Our CAF Cash Account includes dual authorisation internet banking as standard. Find out more.

Preventing fraud

Learn about the latest scams and pick up simple fraud prevention tips in our security centre.

CAF research

Explore CAF's research library for the latest insights on charitable giving and organisational resilience. I spoke with a number of delegates about the following couple of studies:

- CAF and Behavioural Insights Team: Applying behavioural insights to charitable giving
- CAF and Pro-Bono Economics: The cost of giving

We also have a range of cost-of-living related resources for churches and charities available within our Charity Resource Hub.

Loan finance support

If your church needs loan finance support for a building development or sustainability project, find out more about CAF Bank's secured loans and green loans.

To discover what charity loan providers look for from borrowers, register for our upcoming webinar (12.00pm, 7 November 2023).

Making money work harder

The CAF Charity Deposit Platform offers access to a range of charity deposit accounts with a single application. The Platform is provided by Flagstone Investment Management ('Flagstone') and introductions are made by CAF Financial Solutions Limited (CFSL). Sign up to our upcoming webinar for a demo (12.00pm, 14 November 2023).

If you have any questions about our support for churches and charities, please get in touch.
