

ACM - CELEBRATION OR SOMETHING TO BE AVOIDED?

REFLECTION ON THE ANNUAL CHURCH MEETING

Directions: Use this form to reflect upon your annual church meeting in whatever form you held it. We believe the ACM should be an encouraging place for celebration and not a boring business meeting. To help you achieve this we have written the article 'Annual church meetings – Celebration or something to be avoided' which can be found on our website and provided this form as a chance for you to reflect on how it went. We pose three simple questions and invite you to answer them honestly to examine how your ACM went and how it could be improved.

HOW DID IT GO?

---

Was there a sense of celebration or a feeling of just doing what was required?

WHO ATTENDED?

---

Was there a large number of people from your church members? Did anyone from the local community who is not normally associated with the church attend? Did you invite anyone specific; did they attend?

AGENDA?

---

Did the agenda feel long? Was there a good balance between business and celebration? Did you convey the church's future vision?

PRESENTATION?

---

Other than auditory what other forms of learning styles did you use; visual, reading & writing, kinesthetic? Did you make the best use of other people or resources such as I.T.? Could you have made the presentation more celebratory?

CELEBRATION?

---

Was there a feeling of celebration? Was God praised?

We hope this form allowed you to reflect on your ACM and how you may improve for next year.
