

At ACAT Annual General Meeting on Saturday 1st November 2025 members are asked to approve the appointment of 3 people as ACAT Directors, they are as follows:

Livia Velicu (ACAT Board Member)

Livia is seeking re-appointment to serve a second term on the board of ACAT. She served as Vice-Chair and is currently Chair of the board of directors.

Livia is a charity lawyer and, as part of her role, she advises a number of faith-based clients, providing support on a range of issues ranging from governance matters to guidance around trustee duties. Livia also regularly advises on matters relating to charity intellectual property.

Helen Armstrong

After working in the construction industry for over 25 years and enjoying a six-year spell serving her local church, Helen founded Priority Business Services Ltd. As Owner Director, she now provides bookkeeping, accounting, and payroll support to a wide range of churches and charities. With extensive experience in the not-for-profit sector, Helen understands the particular financial and regulatory challenges these organisations face.

She is passionate about helping churches achieve great financial governance that not only meets statutory requirements but also enables and supports their mission. Her practical experience, sector insight, and commitment to good stewardship will be of great benefit to the ACAT Board and its members.

Jacob Power

Jacob is a risk management consultant living and working in Cambridgeshire. He came to know of ACAT in 2023 when he was a church treasurer and began volunteering at ACAT training events and conferences.

He found the training and other opportunities offered by ACAT very useful. He is pleased to have had the opportunity to put himself forward for appointment.
